

DDJ
MYERS
LTD.

SPECIALISTS IN ADVANCING EXECUTIVE AND TEAM LEADERSHIP

Vice President, Human Resources Phoenix, AZ

This billion dollar credit union is a key contributor to the Arizona lifestyle. This credit union is a major supporter of local communities and has a passion for meeting the needs of all their members and the members of the community. Specific examples of their high level of giving include; resources that are given to career development of all employees and giving back to their members through service and monetary.

Your passion for helping people realize their potential and building the strategy to ensure mutual success of the organization and individuals will serve well in this role. This is a tremendous opportunity for personal fulfillment as well as corporate rewards.

Requirements:

Seeking a Human Resources professional with a compelling leadership presence to work on the Executive Team providing strategic guidance in recruitment, benefits, career development and dynamic work environment.

Must have demonstrated track record in developing HR strategy for an organization of several hundred, with preference to multiple locations. Successful experience in recruitment, HR policy, procedures as well as benefits a must. Candidates will be considered with experience outside of the Financial Services industry. Minimum of 7 years experience required. BS degree in business, human resource management or related field. Prefer graduate degrees and certifications in SHRM.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience and professional offer

Contact: Jim Rives at jrives@ddjmyers.com or 800 574-8877