SPECIALISTS IN ADVANCING EXECUTIVE AND TEAM LEADERSHIP

SVP Service Delivery
New Mexico Educators Federal Credit Union
Albuquerque, New Mexico

This $828 million (assets) organization possesses a fast-growing populous with widespread markets. Committed first to delivering outstanding service which, fundamentally, is believed to fuel their growth, New Mexico also pursues meaningful growth opportunities, including current initiatives to move into underserved geographic areas.

This extraordinary opportunity will allow you to build a service organization based on employee development and supporting creativity and innovation. The role is responsible for leading performance across all divisions of service delivery, including branches, remote services, mortgages, investments and business services. An ability to initiate action, remain flexible to change and opportunity and adept problem solving skills are requirements. Potential candidates will be considered from beyond the Credit Union industry, with emphasis on the ability to lead and build outstanding and consistent member service.

DDJ Myers, Ltd. is managing the search. Our process includes in-depth interviews, behavioral profiling, leadership assessments and an emotional intelligence profile as well as an essay questionnaire. We prefer resumes that 'tell your story' as opposed to those that 'look professional.' Our commitment is to locate and recruit the best talent for this position.
